

I give, devise and bequeath the same to my son-in-law, Howard S. O'Neill, to be held by him in trust and subject to the following provisions, that is to say:

(a) To hold, manage and control the same until the conditions of the trust hereby created shall have been fully executed, and to pay all the net income in equal shares to my two (2) daughters namely, M. Madeleine O'Neill and Elizabeth J. McGinnis, and my son Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., so long as they all shall live.

It is not my intention that the death of any one of my said children shall terminate the trust hereby created but that as ~~they~~ their deaths successively occur, one-third (1/3) of the corpus of the said trust shall be distributed to my eleven (11) grandchildren namely: Ross B. Cameron, Jr., Francis McGinnis, Jr., Clare McGinnis, Betty O'Neill, John H. O'Neill, Peggy O'Neill, Thomas H. R. O'Neill, Harry St. A. O'Neill, James F. O'Neill, Nancy O'Neill and Daniel R. O'Neill, per stirpes and not per capita. Should any of my said grandchildren not then be living but have departed this life leaving issue, then said issue shall take the share of said income to which the parent would have been entitled if then living. In case any of my said grandchildren should die before distribution is made of the principal of said Trust Fund, as hereinafter provided, and leave no issue surviving him or her, then, and in that event, the share or shares of the one or more of my said grandchildren not living at the date of said distribution, and leaving no issue, shall be paid over in equal shares to such of my said grandchildren as are then living or to the descendants, if such there be, of my deceased grandchild, said descendants to take per stirpes and not per capita.

In the event that any of my said children shall not be living at the date of my death, then it is my Will that the said trust fund be managed and distributed as hereinbefore set forth as fully and to the same extent as it my said children were all in being at the date of my death.

(b) The Trustee is authorized to retain the aforesaid trust property in its present form as to investment until such time as in his
